something

delicious!

A collage of birthday cakes and a candle. In the background, a candle is lit, and a cake is visible with the text "BESS THIS HOUSE" and a small house illustration. In the foreground, there are several cakes, including one with a large candle and another with a small candle. The text "BIRTHDAY cakes for the Twins!" is overlaid on the image. The word "Twins!" is in a large, stylized font with a purple outline and a red glow. The word "BIRTHDAY" is in a white font with a purple outline. The words "cakes" and "for the" are in a smaller, white font with a purple outline.
